IN MEMORIAM
THE HONORABLE RICHARD REEVE BAXTER

1921-1980

It is with a profound sense of loss that the New York Law School community acknowledges the death of Judge Richard R. Baxter, who died after a brief illness on September 25, 1980. He was 59 years old.

Judge Baxter was elected to the International Court of Justice in 1978, and began his term in February, 1979. He was highly respected as a jurist, a teacher and a scholar by the legal community both here and abroad.

On April 8, 1980, Judge Baxter was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of New York Law School. Although his tenure was short, his contribution to the School was great. We are proud to have had Judge Baxter as a member of our school's community and we mourn his passing.
